Title 02 Administration

- Chapter 040 Board of Supervisors

- Section 010 Regular Meetings

- Regular meetings of the board shall be held on the first, third and fifth Tuesday of each month in Willows, California. (Ord 1040 § 1, (Part, 1993;Ord 1036 § 1,(Part) 1993 Ord. 731 § 1, 1980; Ord. 480 § 1, 1967.)

- Section 010 Office Created

- There is hereby created in and for the County of Glenn a position to be known and designated as "County Administrative Officer."
 - A. No provision of this article is intended to vest in the County Administrative Officer any duty or grant to him or her any authority that is vested by law in any other County officer or employee.
 - B. Nothing herein shall be construed to delegate to him or her any authority or duty required to be performed by the Board of Supervisors.
 - C. The County Administrative Officer shall have no power to bind, obligate or commit the County of Glenn or the Board of Supervisors in connection with any contractual obligation unless specifically authorized by action of the Board of Supervisors. (Ord. 1172 § 2, 2005.)

- Section 020 Special Meetings

- All special meetings of the board shall be called and held in the manner provided by law. (Ord. 480 § 2, 1967.)

- Section 020 Appointment & Salary

- Upon appointment, the County Administrative Officer becomes an employee of the County.

The Board of Supervisors shall set his or her salary and other terms and conditions of employment.

○ Section 030 Salaries and Expenses of Supervisors

- A. On January 1 of each year or as soon thereafter as the board may deem appropriate, the Board of Supervisors will establish by ordinance the compensation of the supervisors, or may elect, as other County employees, to receive a salary based on the County pay schedule, which shall specify the range and step as appropriate, as stated in Section 3.06.021, 3.06.022 and 3.06.023. The Chairman shall receive an additional $100 per month more than other members of the Board of Supervisors. In the event the supervisors do not enact an annual ordinance adjusting salaries, the supervisors will continue to receive the compensation pursuant to the last valid enacted ordinance.

B. Each Supervisor shall receive an annual transportation allowance for miles traveled within the County or, at the supervisor's election shall be paid, in a manner consistent with the methods for paying mileage for regular county employees, mileage expenses for miles traveled in the discharge of the supervisors' responsibilities. The rate at which mileage shall be reimbursed pursuant to this section shall be the current rate recognized by the United States Internal Revenue Service as exempt from taxation under the Internal Revenue Code.

C. Each supervisor shall be entitled to receive necessary expenses incurred in the performance of the supervisors' duties provided funds have been budgeted for such purposes.

D. The clerk of the board of supervisors shall maintain in a separate file all ordinances establishing and adjusting supervisors' salaries.

(Ord. 1180 § 1, 2005; Ord. 1149 § 1,2, 2002; Ord. 1145 § 1, 2002; Ord 1124 § 1 (Part), 2000; Ord. 1111 § 1, 1999; Ord. 1110 §1, 1999; Ord. 1090 § 1, 1997; Ord. 986 § 1,2, 1991; Ord. 846 §1, 1986; Ord. 823 § 1, 1985; Ord. 828 § 1, 1985; Ord. 817 § 1, 1984; Ord. 806 § 1, 1984; Ord. 759 § 1, 1981; Ord. 750 § 2, 1981; Ord. 718 § 1, 1979; Ord. 714 § 1, 1979; Ord. 664 § 1, 1977; Ord. 658 § 1, 1977)

○ Section 040 Qualifications

- A. The County Administrative Officer shall be appointed by the Board of Supervisors on the basis of educational qualifications and executive ability.

B. He or she shall be chosen upon the basis of knowledge and skills in public administration as set forth in the County Classification Specifications for this position as adopted by the Board of Supervisors and incorporated into this Code Section by this reference.

○ Section 050 Selection, Term of Office, & Retention

- A. The County Administrative Officer shall be appointed by resolution of the Board of Supervisors or by contract with the Board of Supervisors. The terms of any such resolution or contract shall incorporate by reference the provisions of this chapter.

B. The term of the first County Administrative Officer shall commence on the effective date of the resolution or contract and shall terminate at 12:00 a.m. on January 1, 2007. Thereafter, the regular term of office of the County Administrative Officer shall be three years, commencing on January 1 of the year 2007 and ending at 12:00 a.m. every third year thereafter.

C. The County Administrative Officer may be removed from office:

1. By majority vote of the Board of Supervisors upon 45 days' written notice of such removal;

2. Except that the County Administrator shall not be removed during the first 120 days following any change in membership of the Board of Supervisors:

(a) Unless there is a four-fifths vote of said Board of Supervisors. Such notice of removal shall be given at a regular meeting of the Board;

(b) Upon such removal, the Board may appoint an Acting County Administrator until a permanent successor is selected.

D. He or she will maintain residence within the County during his or her tenure in office, but he or she need not be a resident of the County at the time of appointment.

E. A vacancy occurring in the position of the County Administrative Officer shall be filled in the same manner as appointment of the County Administrative Officer, but the Board may, by resolution or contract, appoint an interim County Administrative Officer to complete any term in lieu of appointment of a County Administrative Officer for that purpose.

Section 060 Newly Elected Supervisors

A. Upon request for a first-time supervisor elect, the board of supervisors may authorize the use of county general fund moneys for the training, and orientation of a supervisor-elect prior to the assumption of office by that supervisor-elect, including the payment of course fees, course materials, travel and per diem expenses.

B. Such training and orientation programs, and expenses therefor, shall be those the board deems proper and beneficial to the exercise of supervisorial duties by the newly elected supervisors.

C. In order for the board to expend county funds for the training and orientation of a supervisor-elect, the following shall be required:

1. The supervisor-elect shall make a formal request of the board of supervisors for training and orientation;

2. The request shall include information and/or attachments setting forth the relevant training data and/or course curriculum;

3. The request shall include an itemization of estimated expenditures.

(Ord. 776 § 1, 1982.)

Section 060 General Duties

- The County Administrative Officer shall have the following duties and responsibilities, which may include, but are not limited to, the following:

 - B. He or she shall also hold the position of the Clerk of the Board, and the office of the Clerk of the Board will become a division of the County Administrative Officer's office, and the employees of the Clerk of the Board will become the employees of the County Administrative Officer.
 - C. He or she will oversee the County Personnel Department, which becomes a division of the County Administrative Office. The County Administrative Officer will work closely with the County Personnel Department.
 - D. He or she shall act as the executive agent of the Board of Supervisors in overseeing the implementation of authorized projects and programs, assuring appropriate coordination of departmental operations, and resolving interdepartmental problems and disputes.
 - E. He or she shall directly manage all County functions and operations except those committed by law or Board of Supervisors' action to elected County officers or appointed department heads, and shall be cognizant of the administration of all departments.
 - F. He or she shall exercise the full authority of the Board of Supervisors to work with the Personnel Director to recruit, interview, and recommend to the Board of Supervisors a minimum of two persons qualified for appointment to the position of non-elected department head by the Board of Supervisors.
 - G. He or she shall conduct research and make studies and investigations that could result in greater economy and efficiency in County government. He or she shall review and make recommendations to the Board of Supervisors on the basis of management principles such organizational changes as proposed by departments.
 - H. He or she shall recommend to the Board the creation, dissolution, merger or modification of organizational elements or work programs as deemed necessary for the efficient and economical operation of County government.
 - I. He or she shall recommend to the Board policies and adopt procedures for the orderly conduct of the County's administrative affairs.
 - J. He or she shall cause the budget planning process to be compatible with approved County policies and long-range plans. He or she shall work with the Director of Finance to evaluate the budget estimates of all departments and shall coordinate with the Director of Finance on the submission of a recommended annual budget to the Board of Supervisors.
 - K. At the direction of the Board of Supervisors, he or she shall conduct comprehensive management reviews and analyses of programs, projects, and departments, and report his or her findings and recommendations to the Board.

L. He or she attends and participates in meetings of the Board of Supervisors and supervises agenda preparation and follow-up.

M. He or she provides assistance and direction to County departments and staff in the preparation of agenda items and backup documentation.

N. He or she acts as a department head for the County Administrative Office; supervises, assigns, and reviews the work of administrative staff; hires and discharges administrative office personnel.

O. He or she shall keep current on pertinent federal, state and county laws and regulations pertaining to county government operations.

P. He or she is responsible to the Board of Supervisors for strategies to assure County compliance with legal mandates, responsive and accountable County services, and cooperative solutions to regional problems.

Section 070 Special Duties

- The County Administrative Officer shall perform such other duties as assigned by a majority vote of the Board of Supervisors and shall keep the Board advised of any and all matters which may be pertinent to the discharge of its responsibilities.

Section 080 Delegation of Duties & Responsibilities

- If the Board chooses not to immediately fill the position of County Administrative Officer should it become vacant, the Board may by resolution or order delegate and assign any and/or all of the duties and responsibilities of the County Administrative Officer enumerated herein and as otherwise previously performed by the County Administrative Officer. (Ord. 1216 § 2, 2010.)

Section 100 County Board of Equalization

- Effective September 6, 1982, and pursuant to the authority granted under Section 16 of Article 13 of the California Constitution and Revenue and Taxation Code Section 1601 et seq., the board of supervisors shall constitute the county board of equalization for the county. Except as otherwise provided by law, the county board of equalization shall equalize the value of all property on the local assessment roll by adjusting individual assessments. (Ord. 783 § 2, 1982.)

Section 020 Property Record & Receipt Required

- The sheriff of the county shall make and keep a permanent record concerning all property coming into his possession as a result of the investigation of crime, or otherwise, which record shall provide for identification of each item recorded as to time and place of receipt and disposition of such property. The sheriff shall obtain a receipt and keep the same as a permanent record for all articles and items in his possession and delivered to the owner thereof or to other law enforcement agencies. (Ord. 379 §1, 1959.)

Section 030 Property Disposition & Report

- Any property, including money, which comes into the possession of the sheriff in the course of his official duties, and which property is not required to either be retained by him in the performance of his official duties or as to which there is no other provision of law for the disposal thereof, and which property has remained unclaimed for more than one year shall be disposed of by the sheriff in the following manner:

A. Currency or coin shall be deposited with the county treasurer for deposit to the general fund of the county.

B. All other property shall be sold by the sheriff at public auction to the highest bidder and the proceeds thereof paid over to the county treasurer for deposit to the general fund of the county. Notice of such sale shall be given by the sheriff at least five days before the time fixed therefor by publication once in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county. The notice shall give the time and place of the sale and a brief general description of the property involved.

C. Any property which, in the opinion of the sheriff, is worthless or which if sold at public auction would not bring a sum sufficient to offset the cost of conducting the sale may be destroyed by the sheriff, or may, under the direction of the sheriff, be repaired and renovated by county prisoners and given to the director of welfare for distribution to needy persons. All property not purchased at a public auction may be disposed of in the same manner as above specified.

D. The sheriff shall file a written report annually on or before the first day of January with the county clerk recording all of his proceedings under this section. (Ord. 379 § 2, 1959.)

Section 040 Unclaimed Property Disposition

- Any property placed in the custody of the sheriff for the purpose of discovering the true and rightful owner thereof, shall be returned to the person depositing the same upon the filing of a written request with the sheriff within six months of the date of deposit. The request shall contain a statement by the finder that he desires the return of the property in order to perfect his title thereto pursuant to the provisions of the Civil Code of the state of California. (Ord. 379 3, 1959.)

Section 050 Law Enforcement Officers' Training: State Statutes Adopted

- The county declares that it desires to qualify to receive aid from the state of California under the provisions of Chapter I of Title 4, Part 4 of the California Penal Code. (Ord. 391 § 1, 1961.)

Section 060 Law Enforcement Officers' Training: Recruitment, Training Standards

- Pursuant to Section 13522 of Chapter 1 of Title 4, Part 4 of the California Penal Code, the county, while receiving aid from the state of California, will adhere to the standards for recruitment and training established by the California Commission on Peace Officer Standards Training. (Ord. 391 § 2, 1961.)

Section 065 Corrections Program - State Aid: Selection & Training Standards

- A. While receiving any state aid pursuant to Article 3, commencing with Section 6040, of the California Penal Code, the county will adhere to the standards for selection and training established by the Board of Corrections. (Ord. 813 § 1, 1984.)

Section 070 Coroner - Embalming Fees

- Whenever the coroner takes custody of a dead body pursuant to law, he shall make a reasonable attempt to locate the family within twenty-four hours. At the end of twenty-four hours, he may embalm the body, or authorize the embalming by a mortician. If the embalming has been requested by the family or by a person authorized to take charge of the body prior to such embalming, and such family or person has agreed to accept the expense, the coroner may charge and collect up to one hundred dollars. Any family, however, which has not been located within twenty-four hours of his custody of the body, shall not be charged more than thirty dollars. (Ord. 684 § 1, 1978.)

Chapter 440 Department of Social Services -- General Assistance Program

Section 010 Program Adopted

- There is adopted an indigent relief program for the county, to be known as the general assistance program. The general assistance program shall be the means by which the board of supervisors, under the Welfare and Institutions Code of the state of California, discharges its responsibility to provide aid for needy residents of Glenn County; and by which the board exercises, under said code, its authority to provide emergency relief for needy nonresidents living within Glenn County. (Ord. 359 § 1, 1957.)

Section 020 Purpose of Adoption

- The general assistance program is adopted to assure uniform operation of indigent relief activities throughout the county; to promote, protect and secure the general welfare of the people thereof and to assist and encourage indigents to be self-supporting. (Ord. 359 § 2, 1957.)

Section 030 Standards Established

- The Glenn County department of social services shall list the basic requirements of all people for decent, healthy, minimum standards of living and shall assign money values to each of the requirements in accordance with the minimum costs of the requirements. The department shall also list the special requirements of some persons for decent and healthy living and shall assign money values to each of the special requirements in accordance with the minimum costs of the special requirements. These basic and special requirements expressed in money figures shall be known as the standards of general assistance. (Ord. 937 § 2 (part), 1989; Ord.

Section 040 Approval & Adoption

- The standards of general assistance shall be submitted by the Glenn County department of social services to the board for approval and adoption. (Ord. 937 § 2, (part), 1989; Ord. 359 § 3.2, 1957.)

Section 050 Standards--Revisions

- After adoption, the standards of general assistance shall be revised upward or downward by the Glenn County department of social services as the costs of the basic and special requirements vary, but such revisions shall have prior approval and adoption by the board before becoming effective. (Ord. 937 § 2 (part), 1989; Ord. 359 § 3.3, 1957.)

Section 060 Operating policy--Establishment

- The department of social services shall develop detailed operating policies and procedures based on this chapter, and shall submit these for review and approval of the board. Such policies and procedures shall become effective upon approval by the board. (Ord. 937 § 2, (part), 1989; Ord. 359 § 4.1, 1957.)

Section 070 Operating policy--Revisions

- Revisions, deletions or additions of operating policies and procedures as developed by the department of social services, shall be submitted for review and approval of the board before becoming effective. (Ord. 937 § 2 (part), 1989; Ord. 359 § 4.2, 1957.)

Section 080 Determination of Eligibility

- A. Eligibility for general assistance shall be determined by the Glenn County department of social services by measuring an applicant's readily available resources against the established standards of general assistance. Those persons, found to have such resources in lesser amounts than their needs as determined by the standards of general assistance, shall be considered to be eligible for general assistance insofar as need is concerned.

B. Eligibility for general assistance, insofar as residence is concerned, shall be determined by the department in accordance with the Welfare and Institutions Code of the state of California, and shall change to conform to any amendments to said code.

(Ord. 937 § 2 (part), 1989; Ord. 359 § 5, 1957.)

Section 090 Method of Payment

- General assistance may be paid by Glenn County warrant, aid in kind, or surplus commodities. (Ord. 359 § 6, 1957.)

Section 100 Determination of Kindred Responsibility

- A. Determination of those kindred of recipients held to be responsible to support or contribute to the support of general assistance, recipients shall be made in accordance with the Welfare and Institutions Code of the state of California and shall change to conform to any amendments to said code.

B. A standard for determining the extent of liability of the kindred to support recipients of general assistance shall be developed by the department of social services; such standard shall become effective upon approval of adoption by the board, and shall not be changed without prior approval of the board.

(Ord. 937 § 2 (part), 1989; Ord. 359 § 7, 1957.)

Section 110 Appeal

- Any applicant for or recipient of general assistance who believes that general assistance has been improperly denied by the Glenn County department of social services or that general assistance has been granted by the department in a lesser amount than required by the standards of general assistance, may present the matter to the board of supervisors. (Ord. 937 § 2 (part), 1989; Ord. 359 § 8, 1957.)

Section 120 Variances

- Where conditions exist which make compliance with any rule impracticable, the department of social services may recommend that the board modify or amend any requirement set forth in this chapter. (Ord. 937 § 2 (part), 1989; Ord. 359 § 9, 1957.)

Section 130 False Statement a Misdemeanor

- Every person who knowingly gives any false or fraudulent statements or information to obtain assistance or benefits under this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor. (Ord. 1060 § 14, 1995; Ord. 359 § 10, 1957.)

Chapter 480 Agriculture and Home Economics Services

Section 010 Established

- The board is authorized and directed to enter into agreement with the University of California and the United States Department of Agriculture to establish agricultural extension and home economics service in the county, and, to that end, for each fiscal year, to appropriate and use the requisite county funds and place them at the disposition of the University of California and the United States Department of Agriculture for the expenses of the farm advisor, home economics demonstration agent, and other extension agents for the county, as the director of extension may direct, the entire salary of the farm advisor, home economics demonstration agent, and other extension agents, to be borne by the University of California and the United States Department of Agriculture jointly; all in accordance with Section 31401 of the Education Code of the state of California. (Ord. 274 § 1 (part), 1948.)

○ Section 020 Reasons for Adoption

- The reasons for the adoption of this chapter and for the establishment of agricultural extension and home economics service in Glenn County are the following advantages thus made available; Glenn County is the only agricultural county in California not taking advantage of this service; the forty-eight other agricultural counties in California find such service a necessity, or an economically indispensable aid:
 - A. To have dairy herd improvement cow test records;
 - B. To have 4-H Clubs in the county;
 - C. To have home economics demonstrations and assistance;
 - D. To have the best available assistance in increasing butterfat content of production from dairies, neighboring counties having found this assistance caused such increase to extend twenty-five percent;
 - E. To have supervised test plots for seed and fertilizers;
 - F. To have requisite information to eradicate or control animal disease and insect pests;
 - G. To have the value of the federal and state aid that county taxes already support lost to the county if the county fails to bear its relatively small share of the expense to make available to it agricultural extension and home economics service.
(Ord. 274 § 1 (part), 1948.)

● Chapter 500 Fish, Game & Recreation Commission

○ Section 010 Established

- There is established in the county a fish and game commission to be known as the Glenn County fish, game and recreation commission. The commission shall consist of ten members (two selected from each supervisorial district) appointed by the board of supervisors to serve at the pleasure of the board of supervisors. The board of supervisors shall also appoint a commissioner-at-large who shall serve as an alternate. The compensation, if any, of the members of the commission shall be set by resolution of the board of supervisors. (Ord. 904 § 1 (part), 1988.)

○ Section 020 Duties of Commission

- The fish, game and recreation commission shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

A. Manage the propagation and conservation of fish and game pursuant to Section 13100 of the Fish and Game Code. This includes the expenditure of funds under the direction of the board of supervisors received by the county pursuant to Section 13003 of the Fish and Game Code. All expenditures shall conform to the rules and regulations governing such funds pursuant to state and local law and such direction as may be given by the Glenn County auditor.

B. The commission shall also have authority to manage and expend moneys within its budgetary limitations as set by the board of supervisors for development and management of recreation within the county.

C. Establish bylaws for the conduct of its meetings. Said bylaws shall become effective only after approval by the board of supervisors.

D. Report to the board of supervisors on a regular basis concerning the duties set forth in this section and the expenditure of money from the fish and game propagation fund.

E. In carrying out the duties set forth in this section the commission shall comply with all ordinances, resolutions, rules and regulations established by the board of supervisors concerning all matters within its authority, including but not limited to contracts, the expenditure of funds and meetings.

F. In addition to the express powers set forth in this section, the commission shall also have the responsibility to study and advise the board of supervisors on all matters concerning fish, game and recreation within the county.
(Ord. 904 § 1 (part), 1988.)

Section 030 Authority of Governing Board

- The commission shall only have the authority expressly set forth in this chapter or expressly delegated to the commission by resolution of the board of supervisors. (Ord. 904 § 1 (part), 1988.)

Chapter 520 Emergency Services & Organization

Section 010 Chapter Purpose

- The declared purposes of this chapter are to provide for the preparation and carrying out of plans for the protection of persons and property within this county in the event of an emergency; the direction of the emergency organization; and the coordination of the emergency functions of this county with all other public agencies, corporations, organizations, and affected private persons. (Ord. 553 § 1, 1972.)

Section 020 Emergency Defined

- As used in this chapter, "emergency" means the actual or threatened existence of conditions of disaster or of extreme peril to the safety of persons and property within this county caused by such conditions as air pollution, fire, flood, storm, epidemic, riot, or earthquake, or other conditions, including conditions resulting from war or imminent threat of war, but other than conditions resulting from a labor controversy, which conditions are or are likely to be beyond the control of the services, personnel, equipment, and facilities of this county, requiring the combined forces of other political subdivisions to combat. (Ord. 553 § 2, 1972.)

Section 030 Disaster Council--Created--Membership

- The Glenn County disaster council is created and shall consist of the following:
 - A. The chairman of the board, who shall be chairman;
 - B. The director of emergency services, who shall be vice chairman;
 - C. Such chiefs of emergency services as are provided for in a current emergency plan of this county, adopted pursuant to this chapter;
 - D. Such representatives of civic, business, labor, veterans, professional, or other organizations having an official emergency responsibility, as may be appointed by the board. (Ord. 553 § 3, 1972.)

Section 040 Disaster Council--Powers & Duties

- It shall be the duty of the Glenn County disaster council, and it is empowered, to develop and recommend for adoption by the board, emergency and mutual aid plans and agreements and such ordinances and resolutions and rules and regulations as are necessary to implement such plans and agreements. The disaster council shall meet upon call of the chairman or, in his absence from the county or inability to call such meeting, upon call of the vice chairman. (Ord. 553 § 4, 1972.)

Section 050 Emergency Services Director & Assistant Director--Offices Created--Powers & Duties

- A. There is created the office of director of emergency services who shall be appointed by the board.
- B. There is created the office of assistant director of emergency services, who shall be appointed by the director.
- C. The director is empowered to:
 - 1. Request the board to proclaim the existence or threatened existence of a local emergency if the board is in session, or to issue such proclamation if the board is not in session. Whenever a local emergency is proclaimed by the director, the board shall take action to ratify the proclamation within seven days thereafter or the proclamation shall have no further force or effect;
 - 2. Recommend that the chairman of the board request the Governor to proclaim a "State of Emergency" when, in the opinion of the director, the locally available resources are inadequate to cope with the emergency;

3. Control and direct the effort of the emergency organization of this county for the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter;

4. Direct cooperation between and coordination of services and staff of the emergency organization of this county; and resolve questions of authority and responsibility that may arise between them;

5. Represent this county in all dealings with public or private agencies on matters pertaining to emergencies as defined in Section 2.52.020;

6. In the event of the proclamation of a "local emergency" as provided in Section 2.52.050 C (1) and (2), the proclamation of a "state of emergency" by the Governor or the Director of the State Office of Emergency Services, or the existence of a "state of war emergency," the director is empowered:

a. To make and issue rules and regulations on matters reasonably related to the protection of life and property as affected by such emergency; provided, however, such rules and regulations must be confirmed at the earliest practicable time by the board;

b. To obtain vital supplies and equipment, and such other properties found lacking and needed for the protection of life and property and to bind the county for the fair value thereof, and, if required immediately, to commandeer the same for public use;

c. To require emergency services of any county officer or employee and, in the event of the proclamation of a "state emergency" in the county or the existence of a "state of war emergency", to command the aid of as many citizens of this county as he deems necessary in the execution of his duties; such persons shall be entitled to all privileges, benefits, and immunities as are provided by state law for registered disaster service workers;

d. To requisition necessary personnel or material of any county department or agency, and

e. To execute all of his ordinary power as director of emergency services, all of the special powers conferred upon him by this chapter or by resolution or emergency plan pursuant hereto adopted by the board, all powers conferred upon him by any statute, by any agreement approved by the board, and by any other lawful authority.

D. The director of emergency services shall designate the order of succession to that office, to take effect in the event the director is unavailable to attend meetings and otherwise perform his duties during an emergency. Such order of succession shall be approved by the board;

E. The director of emergency services shall, with the assistance of the emergency service chiefs, develop emergency plans and manage the emergency programs of this county, and shall have such other powers and duties as may be assigned by the board.

(Ord. 555 § 1, 1972; Ord. 553 § 5, 1972.)

Section 060 Emergency organization

- All officers and employees of this county, together with those volunteer forces enrolled to aid them during an emergency, and all groups, organizations, and persons who may by agreement or operation of law, including persons impressed into service under the provisions of Section 2.52.050 C(6)(c) of this chapter, be charged with duties incident to the protection of life and property in this county during such emergency, shall constitute the emergency organization of the county. (Ord. 553 § 6, 1972.)

Section 070 Emergency Plan

- The Glenn County disaster council shall be responsible for the development of the county emergency plan, which plan shall provide for the effective mobilization of all the resources of this county, both public and private, to meet any condition constituting a local emergency, state of emergency, or state of war emergency; and shall provide for the organization, powers and duties, services, and staff of the emergency organization. Such plan shall take effect upon adoption by resolution of the board. (Ord. 553 § 7, 1972.)

Section 080 Expenditures

- Any expenditures made in connection with emergency activities, including mutual aid activities, shall be deemed conclusively to be for the direct protection and benefit of the inhabitants and property of the county. (Ord. 553 § 8, 1972.)

Section 090 Acts Prohibited

- No person shall, during a state of war or local emergency,
 - A. Willfully obstruct, hinder, or delay any public officer or employee in the enforcement of any lawful rule or regulation issued pursuant to this chapter, or in the performance of any duty imposed upon the officer or employee by virtue of this chapter;
 - B. Do any act forbidden by any lawful rule or regulation issued pursuant to this chapter, if such act is of such a nature as to give or be likely to give assistance to the enemy, or to imperil the lives or property of inhabitants of this county, or to prevent, hinder, or delay the defense or protection thereof;
 - C. Wear, carry, or display, without authority, any means of identification specified by the emergency agency of the state.
(Ord. 1060 § 15, 1995; Ord. 553 § 9, 1972.)

Chapter 560 Fees for Civil Services Rendered by District Attorney

Section 010 Establishment

- The district attorney is authorized to assess service fees as specified in Section 2.56.020, attorney fees as specified in 2.56.030, and court fees as specified in Section 2.56.040 for all services rendered in civil proceedings to obtain and enforce for child or spousal support, to establish paternity or obtain medical care for children or parents in any action where the district attorney is authorized to seek such in behalf of the county, the child or the parent. (Ord. 659 (part), 1977.)

Section 020 Service Fees

- Support orders paid through the Glenn County family trust fund shall have added to each support payment a fee of two percent. (Ord. 659 (part), 1977.)

Section 030 Attorney Fees

- A reasonable attorney fee shall be requested whenever permitted by law. Such fee sought will be an amount equal to that already provided by statute or rules of court, or five percent of the amount of a support order, or will be based on an hourly rate of fifty dollars, whichever is less. (Ord. 659 (part), 1977.)

Section 040 Court Fees

- The district attorney shall seek reimbursement of court costs (filing fee) from each support obligor. (Ord. 659 (part), 1977.)

Section 050 Payment of Fees

- Fees provided by Sections 2.56.020 and 2.56.030 shall be transferred to the general fund of the county. Fees provided by Section 2.56.040 shall be transferred to the county clerk. (Ord. 659 (part), 1977.)

Chapter 650 Industrial Development Authority

Section 010 Declaration of Need

- In accordance with the California Industrial Development Financing Act (Government Code § 91500 et seq.), the board of supervisors finds and declares that there is a need for an industrial development authority to function in the unincorporated areas of the county. (Ord. 786 § 1 (part), 1982.)

Section 020 Establishment--Powers

- The board of supervisors further declares that an industrial development authority shall function in the unincorporated areas of the county and is established, in accomplishment of the purposes of the Act, and to carry out and complete projects and perform and exercise derivative obligations and powers as set forth in the Act. (Ord. 786 § 1 (part), 1982.)

Section 030 Board of Directors

- The board of supervisors further declares itself to be board of directors of such industrial development authority, and all the rights, powers, privileges, duties, liabilities, disabilities and immunities vested in such a board under the Act shall be vested in this board of supervisors as such board. (Ord. 786 § 1 (part), 1982.)

Section 040 Glenn County Industrial Development Authority

- The authority established in the county by the Act and authorized to transact business and exercise its powers thereunder by this chapter shall be known as "the Glenn County industrial development authority." (Ord. 786 § 1 (part), 1982.)

Chapter 700 Care & Disposal of Unclaimed Property

Section 010 Authority

- This chapter is enacted pursuant to the authority provided by Section 2080.4 of the Civil Code. (Ord. 851 § 1 (part), 1986.)

Section 020 Purpose

- The provisions of this chapter shall apply to the care, restitution, sale or destruction of unclaimed property in the possession of the sheriff of the county. (Ord. 851 § 1 (part), 1986.)

Section 030 Definition

- "Unclaimed property" means any property found by the officers or employees of the county of Glenn upon the public streets or ways of the county or elsewhere, where the owner of the same is unknown. "Unclaimed property" also means any property in the possession of the sheriff of Glenn County which the owner thereof has not claimed and redeemed within the time limits set forth below. Property held as evidence, dangerous weapons or deadly weapons, narcotic or dangerous drugs, explosives or any property of any kind whatsoever which is prohibited by law as the same are defined or described in state or federal statutes, shall not constitute unclaimed property as herein defined. (Ord. 851 § 1 (part), 1986.)

Section 040 Care & Restitution

- All unclaimed property as above defined shall be kept by the sheriff using ordinary care to keep the same safely. If an owner appears prior to three months from the date the property came into the possession of the sheriff and produces reasonable proof of his ownership, and offers reimbursement to the sheriff for any storage charges incurred, the property shall be delivered to said owner upon his payment of the storage charges, if any, and upon said owner executing a receipt for the property. (Ord. 851 § 1, (part), 1986.)

Section 050 Procedure for Sale

A. The sheriff is authorized and empowered to sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, or to transfer said property to the county purchasing agent for sale to the public at public auction, any article of personal property in his possession, unclaimed for a period of three months.

B. In the event the sheriff elects to sell said property, he shall give notice of the date, time and place of sale at least five days before the time fixed therefor by publication once in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county of Glenn.

C. In the event the sheriff elects to transfer said property to the county purchasing agent for sale to the public at public auction, the county purchasing agent shall give notice of the time and place of sale in the same manner as provided by Article 7 (commencing with Section 25500) of Chapter 5, Part 2, Division 2, Title 3 of the Government Code for the sale of surplus personal property.

D. If the property is transferred to the county purchasing agent pursuant to this chapter, such property shall not be redeemable by the owner or other person entitled to possession. If the county purchasing agent determines that any such property transferred to it for sale is needed for a public use, such property may be retained by the county and need not be sold.

E. The net proceeds from any sale conducted pursuant to this chapter shall be delivered to the county treasurer for deposit in the general fund.

F. Property for which no bid is made at such sale may be given to a nonprofit charitable organization, destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the county purchasing agent, or his authorized representative, may direct.

(Ord. 851 § 1 (part), 1986.)

- Chapter 800 Uniform Cost Accounting for Certain Public Projects

- Section 010 Informal Bid Procedures

- Public projects, as defined by the Act and State of California amendments thereof, are adopted, incorporated, and made a part of this title by reference without further publication, and in accordance with the limits listed in Section 22032 of the Public Contract Code, may be let to contract by informal procedures as set forth in Section 22032, et seq. of the Public Contract Code and sections 2.80.020 through 2.80.040, below.
(Ord. 1193 § 2, 2007; Ord. 1058 § 1, 1995.)

- Section 020 Contractors List

- A list of contractors shall be developed and maintained by the Planning and Public Works Agency Director or an appointed designee in accordance with the provisions of Section 22034 of the Public Contract Code and criteria promulgated from time to time by the California Uniform Construction Cost Accounting Commission. (Ord. 1193 § 2, 2007; Ord. 1058 § 1, 1995.)

- Section 030 Notice Inviting Informal Bids

Where a public project is to be performed which is subject to the provisions of this chapter, a notice inviting informal bids shall be mailed to all contractors for the category of work to be bid, as shown on the list developed in accordance with section 2.80.020, and to all construction trade journals as specified by the California Uniform Construction Code Accounting Commission in accordance with Section 22036 of the Public Contract Code. Additional contractors and/or construction trade journals may be notified at the discretion of the department/agency soliciting bids, provided however:

A. If there is no list of qualified contractors maintained by the county for the particular category of work to be performed, the notice inviting bids shall be sent only to the construction trade journals specified by the Commission.

B. If the product or service is proprietary in nature such that it can be obtained only from a certain contractor or contractors, the notice inviting informal bids may be sent exclusively to such contractor or contractors.

(Ord. 1193 § 2, 2007; Ord. 1058 § 1, 1995.)

Section 040 Award of Contracts

- For public projects within their respective responsibilities and for which adequate funds are budgeted, and which are eligible for informal bidding pursuant to this chapter, the Planning and Public Works Agency Director or an appointed designee is authorized to adopt plans, specifications and working details, give the notices required by this chapter, and award informal bids pursuant to this chapter. (Ord. 1193 § 1, 2007; Ord. 1058 § 1, 1995.)

Section 050 Interpretation & Application of Chapter

- A. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed or construed to prohibit the board of supervisors or the road commissioner from utilizing, as an alternative to the procedures set forth in the Uniform Construction Code Accounting Act, the procedures set forth in Article 25 (commencing with Section 20390) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.
- B. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed or construed to impose procedures or create requirements applicable to public projects in cases of emergency, as provided in the Public Contract Code or the Government Code.
- C. It is the intent of the Board of Supervisors that this chapter be interpreted and applied in ways consistent with the Uniform Construction Code Accounting Act.
(Ord. 1193 § 3, 2007; Ord. 1058 § 1, 1995.)

Chapter 900 Master Fee Schedule

Section 010 Intent & Purpose

- A. The intent of having a Glenn County Master Fee Schedule is to provide the public and others in the County with one document that has all fees for services authorized by the Board of Supervisors.

B. The purpose is to review and update the Master Fee Schedule at reasonable and timely intervals, and to provide for ease of use and access to fees for services, charges, and a better understanding by the public of all fees charged by the County of Glenn.
(Ord. 1173, 2005.)

Section 020 Types of Fees Included

- A. The Master Fee Schedule shall contain the Glenn County and State-approved fees for, but not limited to, fees for permits, services, parking, and other such legal instruments which grant permission or authority to do a specific activity or to exercise a certain privilege, except that the fee schedule for the Glenn County Air Pollution Control District may be included as a courtesy to the citizens. (Ord. 1173, 2005.)

Section 030 Revisions to the Master Fee Schedule

- A. The Master Fee Schedule, including but not limited to the type and amount of fees charged for services provided, may be adopted and amended by a Resolution of the Board of Supervisors during the annual budget process, and at other times of the fiscal year as necessary.

B. The procedures for revising the Master Fee Schedule are contained in the Glenn County Administrative Manual, at Chapter 5.23, adopted by Resolution.
(Ord. 1173, 2005.)

Section 040 Liability for Non-Payment

- The amount of any fee listed in the Master Fee Schedule shall be a debt to the County of Glenn. Any person failing to pay a fee shall be liable to an action in the name of the County in any court of competent jurisdiction for the amount of the fee and the penalty imposed on such non-payment. (Ord. 1173, 2005.)
