Privacy Statement for the County of Glenn [1]

County of Glenn has created this privacy statement in order to demonstrate our firm commitment to privacy. The following discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices for County of Glenn.

Privacy Philosophy

County of Glenn believes that electronic privacy is crucial to the ongoing success of the Internet as a service, commercial, and entertainment medium. Our policy is to keep the personal information we receive from our sites completely confidential, and used solely for internal purposes. We will not share your personal information with any other parties.

County of Glenn will not willfully disclose any individually identifiable information about its users to any third party.

Use of Personal Information

Because we collect information on our Web site for various reasons, we have outlined what information we collect and what we do with it in the following sections:

Contact & Change of Information Forms

Our site contains contact and/or request forms that require users to give us contact information (such as their name, address, phone number and e-mail address). We use client contact information from the contact form to send you information about our services and to contact you when necessary.

Use of IP Addresses

We use your computer's IP (Internet Protocol) address to help diagnose problems with our server, and to administer our Web sites. Your IP address is used to help identify you and your time spent at our sites, and to gather broad demographic information. This allows us to see which parts of our sites users are visiting. We do not link IP addresses to anything personally identifiable. This means, for instance, that a user's session will be tracked, but the user will remain anonymous.

Other Sites

The County of Glenn Web site contains links to other sites outside the County of Glenn domain. County of Glenn is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such Web sites.
