Corning Sub-basin GSA Committee – Long Term Fee Options Evaluated

FEE OPTIONS EVALUATED (MARCH 2023 Committee MEETING)

- Parcel (Uniform) Fee - $/acre
- Irrigated/Non-Irrigated Fee – different $/acre charge for irrigated vs. non-irrigated parcels (urban areas considered irrigated)
- Land Use Hybrids – additional parcel level analysis required (if feasible)

Corning Sub-basin GSA Preferred Fee Option =
Irrigated/Non-Irrigated Fee with 3-User Classes.

Corning Sub-basin GSA – Basis For Long Term Fee Options

BASED ON AVAILABLE PARCEL LEVEL DATA

- Parcel exemptions – Federal/Tribal; State uncollectible
- Parcel location, size and boundaries (boundary conditions)
- Consider Land IQ 2021 parcel information
- Land use designations
- Water source (sometimes known)
- Water use (typically GSA accounts have been unmetered with no water use records available)

Corning Sub-basin GSA – Options Evaluation Criteria

FEE OPTION EVALUATION CRITERIA

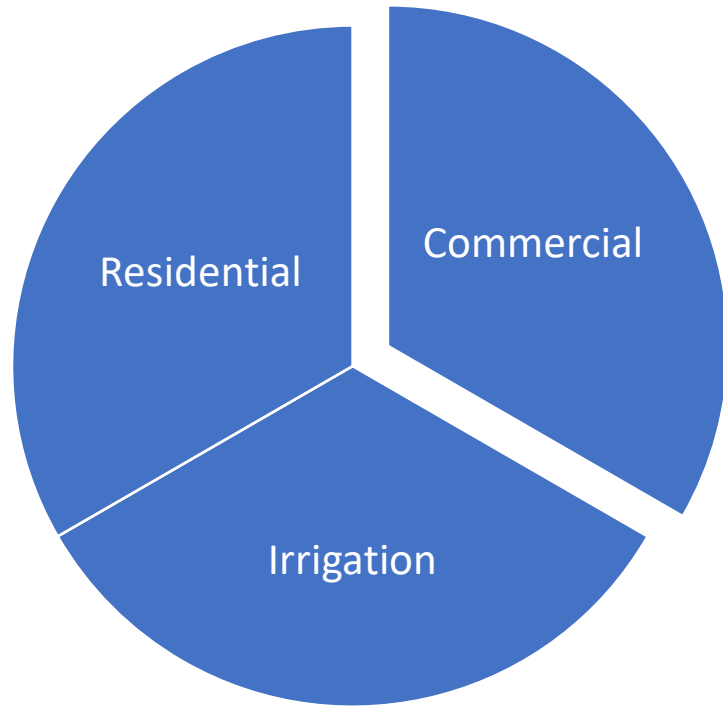

- Revenue Sufficiency – Meets revenue projection targets
- Revenue Stability – over fee implementation period
- All Beneficiaries Pay – important for SGMA compliance benefit
- Equity – cost allocation
- Affordability – economic impacts
- Simplicity – easy to understand
- Administrative ease – low implementation costs
- Enforceability – potential costs for more complex fee structures
- Legality – defensible, challenge risk, potential long term legal fees

Corning Sub-basin GSA – Preferred Long Term Fee Option

PREFERRED FEE OPTION – IRRIGATED/NON-IRRIGATED

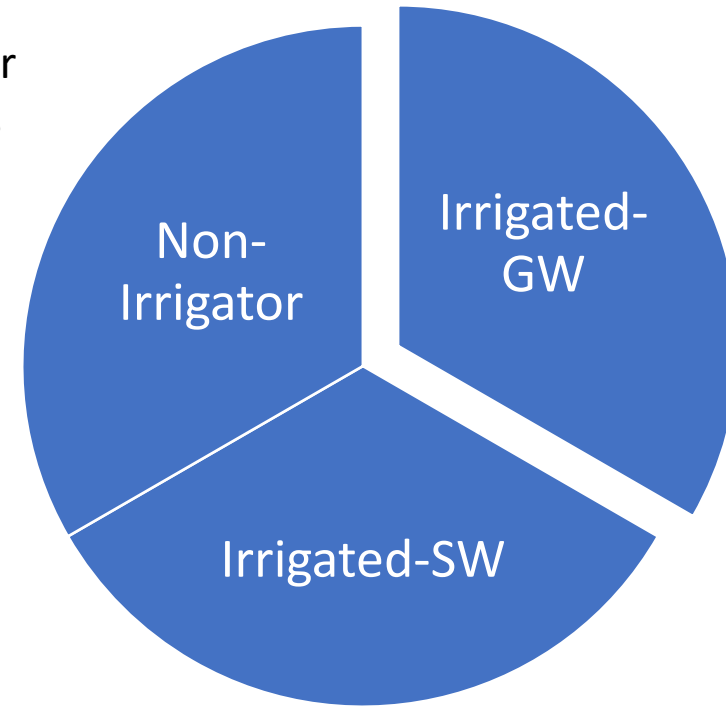

- Adjusted cost allocation to better reflect SGMA compliance benefit received by different user classes
- Lower implementation costs than other non-uniform fee options
- 3-Tier User Class Structure
 - Non-Irrigated
 - Irrigated-Surface Water
 - Irrigated-Groundwater
- Highest cost allocation to Irrigated-Groundwater user class (directly impacts groundwater sustainability)
- Lowest cost allocation to Non-Irrigated user class (very little/no impact on groundwater sustainability)
- Surface water users pay less than Irrigated-Groundwater users due to net groundwater recharge benefit

Corning Sub-basin GSA – Preferred Long Term Fee Option

Urban Fee User Classes Example

User Class: grouping similar customers into a user class

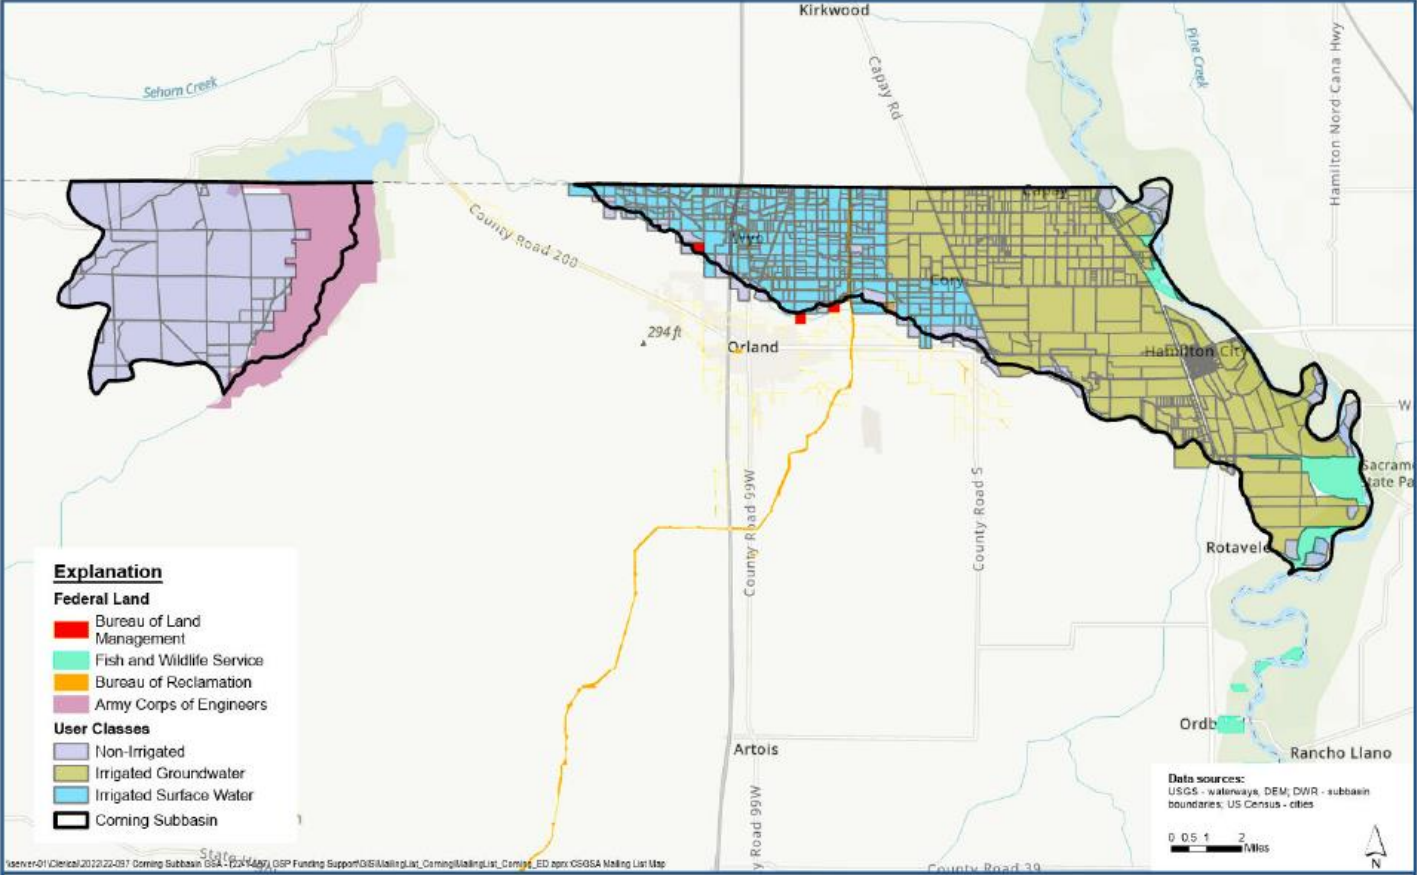

GSA Fee User Classes Example

Corning Sub-basin GSA – Preferred Long Term Fee Option

PREFERRED FEE OPTION – IRRIGATED/NON-IRRIGATED USER CLASS DRAFT DEFINITIONS

- Non-Irrigated User Class
 - Open space, vacant land, natural habitat, dry land farming, rangeland
- Irrigated-Surface Water User Class
 - Parcels within entity service areas that provide surface water supplies
 - Urban areas classification if surface water is primary water source
- Irrigated-Groundwater User Class
 - Parcels with no access to surface water supplies
 - Urban areas classification if groundwater is primary water source

Corning Sub-basin GSA – Final Sub-basin User Class Map

Non-Irrigated	= 12,971 acres
Irrigated-SW	= 7,753 acres
Irrigated-GW	= 20,122 acres
Total	= 40,846 acres

Changes to definitions could impact fees and revenue collected.

Corning Sub-basin GSA – Long Term Funding Project Fee Payment Options

Option 1: All parcels billed through GSA Proposition 218 process: all landowners subject to fee pay the GSA through the local property tax bill process.

Option 2: Maintain Self-Billing Policy: allows the County and other agencies to pay their share of GSA costs through self-billing arrangement with the GSA.

Option 3: Allow annual payment plan for agencies or entities: GSA would allow some entities to opt out of Option 1 (Prop. 218 billing process) and enter into Agreement with GSA to pay their share of annual total GSA costs directly to the GSA.

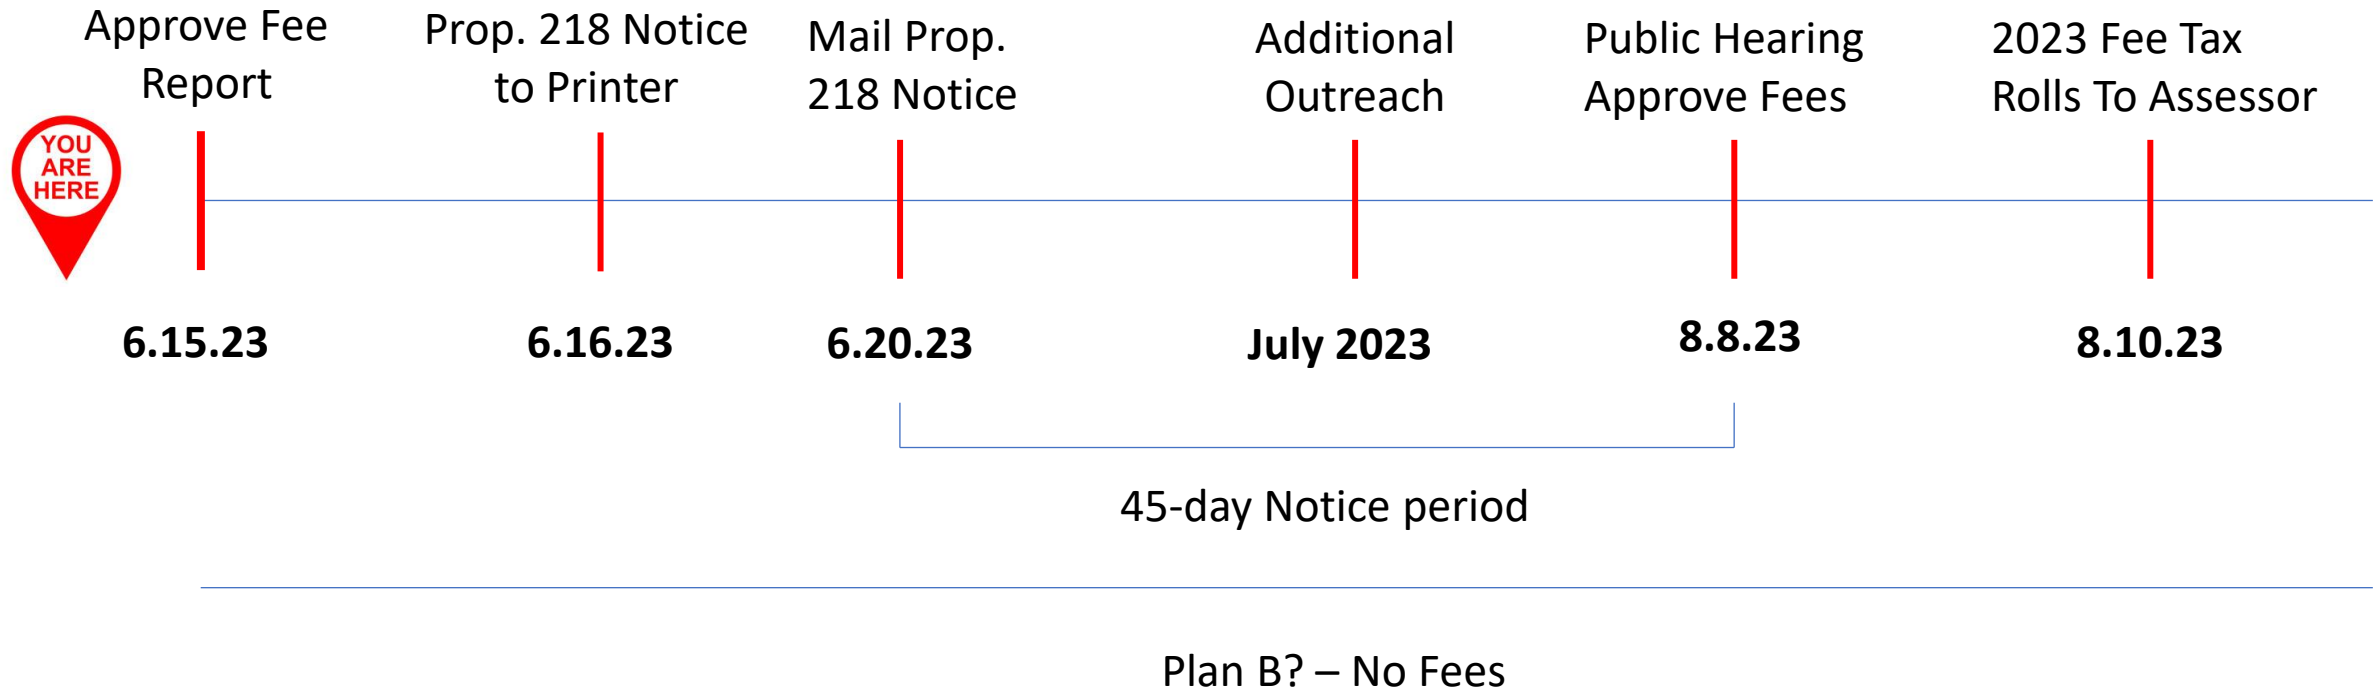

LSCE recommendation: maintain fee payment flexibility to account for changes in the future as to how landowners may pay their fees to the GSA.
