

QUESTION AND ANSWERS

RFP No. 2019-03

1. From census data, it looks like Glenn County has about 100 children with an open child protection case at any given time. Is this correct?
 - a. This average is accurate. Glenn County currently has 112 open child welfare cases.
2. As more states move toward the Families First Act, we also offer our services to adoptive, kinship and reunified families. Would you like us to include options for that in our proposal?
 - a. Yes, Glenn County will be required to offer this service to all Medi-Cal beneficiaries up to age 20 regardless of their foster care status, or lack of one.
