Christine Zoppi Receives Woman of the Year Award

SACRAMENTO, CA – On July 7th, 2023, Assembly Republican Leader James Gallagher announced Christine Zoppi, Director of Glenn County Health and Human Services Agency (HHSA), as the recipient of the prestigious Assembly District 3 Woman of the Year 2023 Award in recognition of her exceptional contributions and achievements in Glenn County. Gallagher will honor the outstanding woman from each county he represents at a special luncheon on Thursday, August 3rd.

The “Woman of the Year” Award symbolizes empowerment, leadership, and resilience. It celebrates women who have demonstrated outstanding dedication and impact in their respective county, inspiring others to break barriers and reach new heights.

Throughout her illustrious career, Christine Zoppi has consistently displayed exemplary leadership skills, an unwavering commitment to excellence, and a profound passion for making a positive difference in the lives of others. Her vision and determination have earned her accolades and made a lasting impact in Glenn County.

“She is a quiet leader that challenges anyone she works with to consider the ‘full 360’ of an issue, leading us to better long-term solutions,” said Jody Samons, Community and Economic Development Specialist at EB3 Development.

As a leading figure in her field, Christine Zoppi has consistently championed housing and employment initiatives. Christine’s dedication to advancing economic success and family wellness has been a driving force in her career. Her commitment to service integration and partnerships has fostered a more collaborative work environment and inspired positive changes within Glenn County with how HHSA delivers services and projects such as the Habitat for Humanity project in Orland.

Glenn County Health and Human Services Agency is incredibly proud to have Christine Zoppi as Director; her leadership inspires us all. This prestigious acknowledgment adds to her long list of honors during her career, further validating her impact and influence as a trailblazer in Glenn County. We congratulate Christine on this well-deserved recognition and applaud her remarkable achievements.
