

DEPUTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY I/II/IIIDEFINITION

Under general direction, performs legal work in the enforcement of laws; prosecutes criminal cases as assigned by the District Attorney or Assistant District Attorney; advises the general public and law enforcement officers on criminal matters; and does related work as required.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

Deputy District Attorney I: Incumbents in this class are characteristically assigned responsibility for routine misdemeanor cases, for assisting in the preparation or trial of felony cases. Incumbents may normally expect to qualify for the next higher class of Deputy District Attorney II when they are able to perform, as a regular assignment, the more difficult and responsible legal work.

Deputy District Attorney II: This is the journey-level position in the occupational series. Incumbents at this level are assigned criminal or family support cases of a more difficult or responsible nature than those assigned to the entry level Deputy District Attorney I class. Incumbents, when assigned to a case or problem of law, are expected to complete regular assignments with limited direction or assistance.

Deputy District Attorney III: This class is characterized as the fully qualified level in the occupational series. Incumbents are assigned to the full range of legal activities involving the investigations, prosecution or defense of complex criminal cases and the preparation of legal opinions on problems which are complex and have far-reaching implications. Supervision is usually received only on the more difficult matters or at the request of the employee.
