

Glenn County: Corning Subbasin

WHAT IS SGMA?

The Sustainable Groundwater Management Act (SGMA) passed in the fall of 2014 establishing a new structure for managing groundwater resources in California. The Department of Water Resources defines groundwater basins and subbasins and assigns a priority designation in relation to SGMA (High, Medium, Low, Very Low). High and Medium priority basins are required to be managed under SGMA by a Groundwater Sustainability Agency (GSA) or the State Water Resources Control Board. GSAs have the opportunity to manage groundwater at the local level by developing and implementing a Groundwater Sustainability Plan by 2022 and ensuring sustainable conditions by 2042 while avoiding six distinct undesirable results. If GSAs are not successful locally, the State Water Resources Control Board will intervene and assume responsibility for basin management. Glenn County has local GSA coverage and is currently compliant with SGMA.

The Corning Subbasin is a portion of the larger Sacramento Valley Groundwater Basin covering approximately 207,342 acres. The subbasin spans Glenn and Tehama Counties and is bounded on the west by the Coast Ranges, on the north by Thomas Creek, on the east by the Sacramento River, and on the south by Stony Creek except for a small portion following the Glenn-Tehama County boundary. The GSA boundaries within the Corning Subbasin are shown above.
